☞Jeans Pants at $1 25, at B. W. Rose's, corner Main and Broadway. *

☞We were visited by a refreshing shower on Monday last. More of it would be very acceptable.

☞Linen Pants regardless of cost, and B. W. Rose's, corner Main and Broadway. *

Brick Yard to Rent.

Plenty of water, &c., without rent. Apply to P. L. Reese. *

☞A stock of Hats and Caps for Men, at B. W. Rose's, corner Main and Broadway. *

☞There were three additions to the Christian Church on Sunday night last, and one on Monday night.

☞The Mt. Sterling Police court on Saturday August 1st. July 27th is the last day for warrants returnable to the August Term.

☞Your choice of Linen Coats, sizes from 22 to 40, for one dollar, at B. W. Rose's, corner Main and Broadway. *

☞Mr. I. F. Calk is still in the market buying wheat, and asks the farmers to call on him before disposing of their crops.

☞Bob Bean informs us that his house is paying one dollar per bushel for good wheat, and $1.05 for strictly choice lots.

☞Mr. Salmons informs us that the young people of Clark and Montgomery will have another hop at Oil Springs on Tuesday, the 4th of August, to which every body is invited. A pleasant time is guaranteed to all who attend.

☞The Masonic fraternity of this city gave a magnificent dinner on Monday last, for the benefit of the Widows' and Orphans' Home at Louisville. The receipts netted them about one hundred dollars. The committee who had the dinner in charge request us to return thanks to the ladies who so nobly assisted them, and made the affair a grand success.

BURGLARY.—Mr. J. W. Harrah's drug store was entered through the back door on Friday night last, and about fifteen dollars in currency taken from the cash drawer.

An attempt was made to enter B. W. Rose's Clothing store one night last week, but the burglars were frightened before they gained an entrance.

☞We were not present at the court house on Monday during Mr. Wilkerson's speech, but we are in [illegible] his respects to us, and [illegible] his first [illegible] where Hiram [illegible] in no critiram calls a criticism [illegible] of facts as they

☞We learn that a bloody affray occurred at Jackson, Breathitt county, on Thursday last, between Curtis and Hiram Jett on one side and Jerry Little and others on the other. Curtis Jett was killed, and Hiram Jett and Little severely wounded, and it is supposed the latter will die. The affray was the result of an old feud between the parties.

☞The Owingsville News again made its appearance last week, this time under the control of W. R. Patterson, Esq., a rising young lawyer of our neighboring town. The News makes a very creditable appearance both in make up and the care and taste displayed in the arrangements of its reading matter. Mr. Patterson is a sprightly writer, and we hope the people of Bath will extend him sufficient encouragement to keep the paper up, and not let the enterprise result as heretofore.

☞Mr. J. C. Orear informs us that a short time ago he had a cow to drop two calves, and that on the following day he moved the cow into another pasture, but that he could only find one of the calves. Eight days after moving the cow, he again went to the pasture from which she had been removed, and found the calf, but very weak, from having nothing to eat during the eight days. He took the calf up in his arms, and carried it to the cow, and he informs us that the little animal is now doing finely.

JEALOUSY AND MURDER.

One Woman Kills Another with a Hatchet.

One of the most cruel and cold-blooded murders was committed in the upper portion of this county on Sunday last that it has ever been our lot to chronicle. The particulars as we learn them, are as follows:

Evaline Hubbard, a woman of easy virtue, lives on the Long branch, on the road leading from the state road to Gatewood's old mill, in a settlement commonly called "Pennsylvania," and has for a neighbor George Stephens, who has for a wife a woman heretofore known by the name of Abigail Hodger, also a woman of bad character. It seems from all we can learn that Stephens' wife has been for a long time jealous of the charms of Evaline for her husband, and catching her away from her house on the day named just in the edge of the woods, attacked her with a hatchet, cutting her several times in the face and head, causing her death instantly. She then left her, where she was found during the day, presenting a ghastly spectacle. Mrs. Stephens was arrested and charged with the crime, which we are informed she acknowledged, and exhibited the hatchet with which the work of death was performed, but we are informed since then she denies any knowledge of the affair. The case was to be tried before Esquire Bedford sitting as an examining court on Wednesday, but up to the time of going to press we have not learned the result of the trial.

☞Mr. McCullough, the agent, is introducing Baker's patent convertible Scoup and detached Concave Seives, one of the most useful and handy articles for the household that we have ever seen. It is a scoop, a measure and a seive all in one, and has only to be seen by the good housewife to be appreciated. It is very cheap in price when we take into consideration the amount of work that can be performed with it. Mr. McCullough informs us that he will deliver all that he has sold on Friday, but will take orders up to that time.

Moonlight Fete

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a moonlight fete in the grounds of Hollywood Institute Thursday evening, August 6th. No pains will be spared to make the affair a pleasant and enjoyable one to all who may patronize them. Arrangements have been made for good music, and it is earnestly desired that our people will generally turn out and lend their presence to the entertainment.

The Minstrels.

The minstrel entertainment given by the young gentlemen composing the Mt. Sterling string and cornet bands, at Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening last, was a grand success. They were assisted by Mr. Frank Nelson, one of the best commedians now upon the stage. His drolleries and eccentricities kept the audience in a roar of laughter, while his stump speech was a fine hit at the times. Mr. Joe Bowles also assisted very materially to the entertainment by his singing. He has a fine, sweet voice and his singing added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. Frank Bly in his inimitable violin solos, was enchored three times. We have heard Ole Bull, Tosso, and other celebrities, but we have never yet heard any one make as sweet music on a violin as Mr. Bly. Our own boys performed their parts in an admirable manner, and the entertainment was a success.

☞By reference to the proceedings of the meeting at the court house, it will be seen our people earnestly desire Lexington to give us the aid asked now for the coal road. The officers of the road, and Col. Thos. Turner visited Lexington last week, and made application to the Mayor and Council, and express gratification at the friendly spirit with which their proposition was received, and the general favor with which the business men of Lexington consider the matter. As the proposal is simply that Lexington endorses fifty thousand dollars of bonds, the payment of which is to be first secured by a mortgage upon the road and all the lands and property of the company, it is not much that is asked, and as the bonds are not to be delivered until the road bed is built to the coal and then go to pay for the iron, it follows that by granting this she secures the road out and out.

We are glad to see that the Lexington Gazette recognizes the interest of that city to be as great as that of Mt. Sterling in this valuable enterprise.

☞Now is the time for bargains, as I will sell my entire stock of Clothing regardless of cost to make room for fall importation. Come early and get your choice. Remember the place corner Main and Broadway.

* B. W. ROSE.

TO the Democratic Voters of Montgomery County.

Mr. Hiram Wilkerson has again come to the front with manifesto No. 3, of July 14. We do not feel that any reply is needed, as facts are stubborn things, and must be met by something more than assertions made by defeated candidates; but as Mr. Wilkerson evidently tries to make the impression that the Executive Committee are not a unit in sustaining the action of the majority, and support of Col. Stoner as the nominee of the Democratic party for Sheriff.—We feel that it is but due Col. Stoner and the Democracy to say that although four of the Executive Committee voted for Wilkerson in the primary election, and earnestly desired his nomination, we are now in view of the result of that election a unit in the support of Col. Stoner as the regular nominee of the Democratic party.

The Executive Committee, the candidates and the Democracy of this county having entered into a solemn agreement to settle the claims of the several aspirants for the county offices by primary election, and Col. Stoner's nomination being in part the result of that agreement, are we not all bound as men to support the nominees and keep good our pledges?—We say, YES! and this we confidently feel will be the response of the Democracy on the day of election. If defeated candidates will persist in in their efforts to make trouble and create divisions within the party, let consequences rest upon them; but let the Democracy do their duty—stand firm for principle, their pledges and their nominees, and we have nothing to fear from the opposition.

Dem. Executive Committee.

As my friend Hiram Wilkerson has referred to me in his card of July 14, I will state to the public the facts in the case: I was not present when the preliminaries were arranged in regard to the counting of the ballots. It is true I did object to one vote being counted which I thought was illegal, but was then told of the ruling of the committee, which was in accordance with the stipulations, and acquesced. It is true I did object to the burning of the books, but when I saw a majority of the committee were in favor of burning them, I also acquiesced in that. I consider that Col. Stoner and all the others that were cried from the Court House are the nominees of the Democratic party, and I will support them at the August election.

HENRY L. JONES.

☞Among the last acts of Congress was the passage of a bill making important changes in the newspaper postage law. From the 1st of January, 1875, the postage on newspapers will be prepaid by publishers at the rate of two cents per pound. Subscribers will, after January 1st, be subject to no postage. Papers will be delivered free in counties where published. Under this regulation weekly papers will be within a small fraction of 10 cents per annum, and on the dailies, 60 cents per year, against 20 and 120 cents under the present law. This new law will force all publishers to advance system of payment. They cannot afford to furnish the paper on credit, and at the same time, advance the postage.

Fatal Affray in Morgan:

We learn from a private letter that Johnson Oakley shot and killed a man named Wesley Richardson, at Blackwater, Morgan county, on Wednesday last. A man named George was struck in the leg by a stray ball from Oakley's pistol, receiving a severe though not fatal wound. There were several other parties who were badly beaten up with clubs and stones. We did not hear of the origin of the difficulty and cannot give any of the particulars.

We also learn from the same letter that a man named J. P. McNear committed suicide in Morgan county, on Thursday last, by hanging himself.

☞A writer in the Courier-Journal attributes the entensive drouth in some parts to the religious indifference of the people, and concludes that heaven is shut in just punishment of a people who neglect the worship due to God. The remedy is repentance and public confession of sin and public prayer. The private prayers of the 7,000 who had not bowed the knee to Baal were not sufficient so long as the sin of the nation continued. It is, therefore, manifest that as every person is effected by the present judgment, so also all are bound to do what can be done to remove the cause. "Let the people praise thee, O God; yea, let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us."—[Psalm 67, 5.

AN ERROR CORRECTED.

Sam Fizer Matrimonially Inclined.

FRIEND HANLY: I see in the SENTINEL that Uncle Billy Scobee is much exercised about his son Sandy marrying. He thinks his fox hunting with my friend Lem. Bush and myself will greatly retard his marrying. But I beg to assure my old friend that the contrary will be the result. Lem tells me he is a marrying man, and will not live for nought, and as for myself I am making strenuous exertions for pleasant winter quarters by next freezing time, and as an inducement to my friends, Sandy and Lem, I will make their wives a bridal present of the finest hound puppy in Kentucky, a thoroughbred, and whose pedigree will be furnished when called for. I hope uncle Billy will not think either of our prospects hopeless, for he knows that all hunters make good husbands, love their wives and children, and particularly their thoroughbred stock, and I take great pleasure in recommending my two friends to the tender regards of the most dainty fingered or fragile lassie, or the rosiest, blushing, blooming damsel, or fascinating widow that revels in beauty and grandeur, within the border of their hope or acquaintance, and I would say to some of my particular friends who have an ear single for music that I am as full of it as a church organ, but never allow an eolic, nor somniferous, or unpleasant note of any kind to escape during divine service.

Yours connubially,
S. S. FIZER.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effect; such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, impure blood, heart burn, water brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of the food after eating, low spirits, &c. A Brilliant Record of Cures.

An American humorist tells us that it would have been money in his pocket if he had been born without a stomach, and then proceeds to figure up the cost of a chronic dyspepsia, to which he is a martyr, and which he says it is impossible to cure. On this point, "Josh Billings," (for he is the party referred to) is mistaken. Unless his stomach differs from all other dyspeptic stomachs, Hostetter's Bitters will cure him in less than three months. This it would be safe to guarantee under any penalty. There are a few, a very few, actual specifics for disease in existence, and Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be set down as one of them. In cases of indigestion it never fails. Persons who had suffered for many years almost every conceivable species of torture from this agonizing complaint, have been permanently cured with the Bitters in six weeks. Hundreds of such instances are on record, authenticated by the testimony of prominent men in every walk of life, eminent physicians among the number. But this celebrated vegetable preparation is something more than a stomachic and tonic. It is also an alterative of wonderful virtue. In liver complaint its effect is as direct and immediate as that of calomel or blue pill, and far more salutary; and in all diseased conditions of the bowels, notably in cases of constipation, its regulating properties are in the highest degree serviceable The new settlements in the west and all low-lying traces of country infested with miasmatic exhalations, so fruitful this season, of the various types of intermittent fevers, should be always well stocked with this incomparable chologue, which will cure any case of fever and ague in a period varying from three days to three or four weeks, according to the violence of the complaint. Nervous disorders which are always aggravated by the adulterated liquors usually prescribed by physicians, are readily cured by a course of this admirable combination medicine, in which the properties of a stimulant, a tonic and alternative are happily blended.

Capt. Jones Eligible.

The Democratic Executive Committee met at the Galt House, Louisville Tuesday, to investigate the charges against Capt. Jones, the Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. After a searching investigation a resolution was adopted declaring it the decision of the Committee that he was eligible, and a Committee appointed to prepare an address stating the same. The address is as follows:

To the Democratic voters of Kentucky:

The Democratic State Central Executive Committee having carefully and fully investigated the question of eligibility of Capt. Thomas C. Jones to office in Kentucky, do unanimously express our opinion that he is eligible, and that there are no grounds in the facts of the case on which to raise a serious doubt to the contrary.

We do, therefore, not only recommend to the Democracy of the State our regular nominee for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals as a man in every way worthy of support, but we earnestly urge upon every good and true Democrat the necessity and duty of prompt and decisive action at the polls; and we appeal to them to march shoulder to shoulder on the first Monday in August, in achieving another overwhelming victory for our cause, and at the same time rebuking the machinations of our political foes.

Blackberry Wine.—Put the berries in a large tub; to every gallon of berries pour on one pint of boiling water. Bruise them with a mallet, and let them remain until the next day; strain through a thick cloth. To every gallon of juice add two and a half pounds of sugar. Drain again and put into a cask; cover the bung with muslin; put it in a cool place. Shake the cask daily until fermentation ceases; cork it tight, and by September it will be ready for use, but improved with age. This recipe has been followed for ten years and never failed.

Captain and Mrs. Sam. Steele, of Cove Hill Grange, in Franklin county furnishes the Frankfort Yeoman the following, which they believe to be an infallible cure for hog cholera, as it has been successfully tried on Capt. Steele's farm and on that of Henry Offutt, Esq., in Shelby county, from whom Mrs S. obtained it. Take any quantity of poke root from a half bushel to a barrel or more, according to the size of the drove, boil it till it can be mashed to the consistency of paste then mix with it enough corn to make the hogs eat it freely, and it is ready for use. Thus prepared, feed the mixture to all your hogs, both the sick and the well; it will cure the former and prevent the latter from taking the cholera. At all events, such is the experience of the parties named, and, as poke root is readily found on every farm, it is well worth the experiment by every farmer whose hogs may be afflicted with that terrible disease—Ashes and salt, and lime and salt are also said to be good for the same disease.

Charles Reis, a German, of Louisville, eloped with his unmarried niece leaving a wife and children behind.—He had previously sold out all his effects, and leaves his family destitute. He is supposed to have gone to St. Louis.

The Princeton Banner wants the opinion of the press on its suggestion that Governor Leslie should call the Legislature together for the purpose of passing a stay law.

A Boyd county police officer, who was in pursuit of an offender, suddenly drew a telescope from his pocket in default of a pistol, and the fugitive dropped on his knees and begged for quarter.

"How do you like Shakspeare?" said a blue-stocking young lady to an old river captain. "Don't like her at all, madam; she burns too much wood and carries too little freight."

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

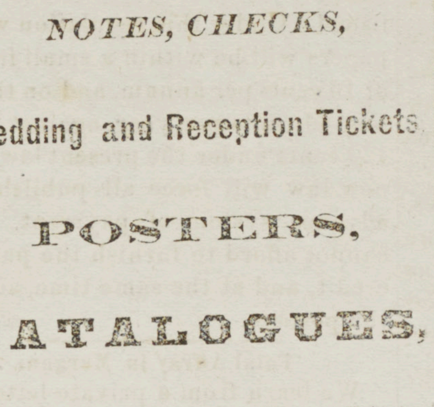

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

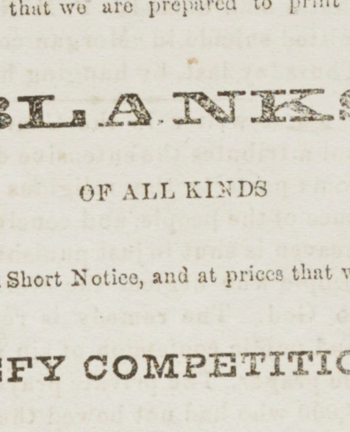

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy, it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in The White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12x16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals.—The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself:

NEWARK, N. J., Sept 20, 1873.

Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.—Gentlemen; I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings. Very respectfully,
[Signed,] THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14x20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 cents extra the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.
